

Steve Dimopoulos

Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer

Steve Dimopoulos is the Member for the Oakleigh District in Victorian Parliament. On being re-elected in 2018 Steve was appointed Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer.

Steve is a passionate advocate for the Oakleigh District having delivered several major initiatives in his first term, which includes removing multiple level crossings and upgrading schools. During this term, Steve also chaired the Mental Health Expert Taskforce, served on the Parliamentary Accounts and Estimates Committee and the Scrutiny of Acts and Regulations Committee.

Prior to being elected to the Victorian Parliament, Steve was the mayor of the City of Monash and a councillor. Steve has had a diverse career which includes owning a small business, working in the Victorian Public Service and working for the former Federal leader of the Labor Party, the Hon Simon Crean.