

Steve Parkinson
General Manager, Biomanufacturing Division
Australian Paper

Steve is currently the General Manager, Biomanufacturing Division and Strategic Business Development at Australian Paper Pty Ltd. He was with Visy for 10 years as the R&D National Manager at the Visy Technical Centre, Coolaroo and instrumental in building the Tumut Mill and other mills.

With 35+ years experience in pulp and paper manufacturing in Australia he has had previous executive roles including Director at Wembley Mill Pty Ltd, with numerous management roles in direct operations, sales, technical services and R&D.

He holds executive committee member positions at APPITA and on the Victorian Manufacturing Skills and Training Taskforce - Dept. of Education. Steve's business experience covers Australia, USA, Middle East and Thailand.