

David Jettner Biography

David Jettner is Australian Paper's General Manager Corporate Development, challenged with "turning credible ideas into viable projects". Currently his major focus is developing Australian Paper's $7.5 million Energy from Waste feasibility study into a viable business proposal that will attract a wide range of government and private sector partners seeking responsible solutions to the future strategic management of Melbourne and Gippsland's non-recyclable waste streams.

David is qualified in engineering and business administration and has broad industry experience across:-

- 4 states and territories
- The Mining, Cement, Pulp & Paper and FMCG sectors,
- Operations, Maintenance and Capital Projects.

David has worked at Australian Paper for more than 20 years in a wide range of roles and has an intimate knowledge of its Maryvale Mill operation, one of the largest employers in Victoria's Latrobe Valley.
