

Mary Aldred
Chief Executive Officer
Committee for Gippsland

Mary Aldred commenced as the CEO of the Committee for Gippsland in 2011.

Mary has worked as corporate & regulatory manager for an energy efficiency business, for the Energy Supply Association of Australia and in a policy role for the retail arm of International Power. Mary serves on a number of boards as well as a several Victorian and Commonwealth Government ministerial advisory committees.

Mary has worked for a United States Senator in Washington, DC and an Australian government minister.

Mary has a BA (Hons) from Monash University, and a Master of Agribusiness from the University of Melbourne, an MBA from Federation University's Gippsland campus.

In 2016 Mary studied Infrastructure in a Market Economy: Public Private Partnerships at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government in Boston, MA. Mary is a graduate of the AICD and the Gippsland Community Leadership Program. Mary has participated in a number of international delegations, including representing Gippsland on a regional cities trade delegation led by the Victorian Premier to China in 2016 and to Germany in 2017 to better understand the latest low emissions brown coal technology.